 and ZERBST - LINDAU (M 53/D 99) roads were again open for public traffic.

- 25X1A 3. [REDACTED] Comment:

The ZERBST airfield had been assumed to be occupied by two fighter regiments equipped with Yak-3s. This report does not indicate whether these units were still stationed at the airfield in late May and early June 1949. The aircraft were possibly parked in the hangars, due to the reported construction work at the runway. This construction work is reported for the first time.
